

Dear friends and family,
For those who don't know me, I'm Timothee Afangbedjee, a missionary to West Africa based in Togo.

I'm a sophomore at Appalachian Bible College, majoring in Pastoral Studies. I am privileged to keep serving the Lord despite being busy with school. After praying, I saw the Lord directing me to lead a summer ministry trip to Togo, WA, this summer. While there, I will be busy with the team traveling with me to do VBS, Kids clubs, and a soccer evangelism tournament. I have a passion for lost souls, especially for my people, so please pray that this trip will be a blessing for us to see so many lives changed, and pray for God's financial provision for my trip. This trip's cost and every expense is $6,100. I'm beyond grateful for everything the Lord will lead you to give.

Note: At the back is listed what the expenses would look like.
Summer Ministry Financial Budget:

Items	Cost	Total

Sport Evangelism(Tabligbo)	$1,500	$1,500

Total	$6,100	$6,100

Praying for:

I know the Lord is faithful in providing. If God lays it on your heart to help, you can donate by the address found below online or by sending a check. God bless you as you are partnering with me on this journey.

Isaiah 6:8: "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me."

Hello dear partner in mission,

Blessings be unto you today in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I trust you are all doing great; I'm alive and well too, by the grace of God. School is going pretty well; it is challenging, but I love it. I am enjoying growing because I know it is for a good cause. He has me here because He wants to increase my ability to do more and effectively achieve the mission He calls me to do. So even though it could be hard sometimes, I'm grateful and have a blessed hope that it is for the Kingdom's sake.

Thank you all for your prayers and support in this season of my life. So far, this school year is going well, and we are almost at the end. My sophomore year has been more challenging but yet fun. I got to meet new friends and grow together as we encouraged and prayed for each other. In this pictures you can see me with my friend John and the Roff family and Olivia, also some views of last year summer ministry.

In my last update, I shared about the burden on my family. Thank you so much for the prayer and support. The Lord touched our landlord's heart, and he accepted receiving a year's rental payment since we do not have the selling price for him. It is a blessing because he threatened to evict us/the family out of the house if we could not pay him by the deadline. Now we have another year to stay there and pray for what the Lord may have next. Please continue praying for my family. Right now, summer is coming quickly. After praying, I saw the Lord is calling me to go to Africa this summer(I add my summer ministry plan to this letter). It was not an easy decision since a lot has been going on. Still, I saw clearly in the word that we shouldn't be worried about anything, but in all situations, we should present our requests to God by prayer and petitioning with thanksgiving. The peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus(Philippians 4:6-7), so yes, hardships may come, but it is all because we are in this sinful world. The good news is that we have a living hope, another reason we shouldn't let the hardships define who we are in Christ. Will it be easy? No, but it is worth it to set our minds on the one who is able and pray daily for His will. I believe His will for me is to preach the word and make people hear the unfailing love of Jesus (2 Timothy 4:2), what God has done for a sinner like me. So, yes, I will head to West Africa this summer to proclaim Jesus in Togo and Benin, and if He will, I will be in Liberia too. So continue praying for me as I continue praying for you all. If you feel led to help support my mission trip, you are so welcome to do so. Again, having you pray for and support me is a great joy. I want you all to know that it means the whole world to me. You are a blessing.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for my school as I'm praying and working hard to finish school
- Pray for wisdom and provision for my family situation
- Pray for provision for my summer ministry plans
- Pray for me (as I will preach and share the ministry at Swan Creek Baptist Church this week) for knowledge and wisdom to communicate clearly what the Lord is doing through me and in me.
- Pray for our Church planting project in Liberia. We just found land after so many years of prayers; we are praying for $8,000 to get that land for the church in Liberia.
